Who Benefits

from Access Containers.Com

Shiplines

+ Improve tracking and tracing of inland container moves.

+ Decrease "empty miles" by reloading empty containers with export cargo.

Terminal Operators

+ Can use actual data to improve space management.

+ Decreased Port traffic, reduced congestion, fewer empties needed in storage.

Truck Lines

+ Increase "loaded miles" and improve productivity per truck.

+ Improve customer service while saving (potentially) millions of gallons of fuel.

Government Agencies

+ DOT, EPA: Decreased traffic, reduced impact of "empty miles."

+ Hazmat, Emergency Response: access to more complete data.

THE ACCESS GROUP

Welcome to the future. For as long as anyone can remember, Steamship Lines, Agents, Brokers, Truck Lines and Freight Forwarders have struggled with finding ways to track their containers. Now, due to increased security concerns, police, fire departments, and most branches of government need to know information about those millions of closed containers that move on American roads every year.

The Access Group has a new solution for you.

AccessContainers.Com

Of course, you can continue to rely on The Access Group for reliable, affordable, and efficient solutions for your transportation needs. Now, Access also means container tracking and tracing. Access means reducing phone calls and improving customer service. It means that you can offer your customers something they can really use: a 24-hour, full-service Internet website that answers all of their questions about their containerized shipments.

AccessContainers.Com works. 3 years in development and testing have resulted in a site that is user friendly, incredibly easy to use, and definitely efficient.
